Our skill with 3 dimensional contour machining in medical grade titanium as well as other medical grade materials qualifies DaCo as a prime supplier of high quality implants and other components for major medical companies.

It is DaCo's high quality standards which meet ISO - 9002/2000 that enhances DaCo's ability to work with a variety of today's exotic materials like titanium, nickel and Kovar. Making DaCo the best choice for many electronic industry applications.

DaCo has the ability to manufacture a wide range of precision machined parts. Our MAZAK CNC lathes and machining centers have the capacity to hold very close tolerances. We manufacture parts in a wide range of materials used by the Aerospace industry.

DaCo's CNC lathes and machining centers, state of the art Coordinate Measuring Machine combined with other precision optical measuring equipment establishes DaCo as a leader in manufacturing technology.

DaCo provides our customers with Laser Engraving services on a wide range of materials using our 60 watt yag AB laser system. Our laser welding services are performed using a 50 watt lumonics system for radial welding of small precision components.

Since DaCo's beginning in 1976 our services have required the highest manufacturing standards. Our standards are currently ISO - 9002/2000 compliant.
